The Defendant, Wesley Renier and Victim, are related by blood and reside together as if a family making this incident Domestic in nature. The Victim is a disabled adult who is diagnosed with Cerebral Palsy and has limited mobility which requires a walker or wheelchair, thus affecting her ability to perform the normal activities of daily living.

Upon arrival I met with the Victim at the front door. The Victim stated that last night she got into an argument with the Defendant. During the argument, the Defendant took her tablet and started destroying it. Following this, the Defendant pushed her down and began hitting her with his hands, and kicking her while she was on the ground. Due to this, the Defendant sustained several bruises to both arms, and one bruise to her neck. I saw noticeable bruising that I took photos of with my agency issued body worn camera.

Next I spoke with the Defendant who advised the following, post Miranda. The Defendant asked the Victim to put food away, the Victim began cursing, scratching his arms, and hitting him with her tablet. The Defendant pushed the Victim down on the floor, and she landed on her butt. The Victim then went to her room and went to bed. The Defendant sustained several small cuts to the inside of both of his arms.

Based on the investigation the Defendant did intentionally cause strike and kick the Victim, which caused physical injury to the Victim, a disabled adult.

The Defendant is being charged with Domestic Abuse of a Disable Adult (FSS 825.102.1)
