RE: State vs. Johnnie Dion Cloud
Case Number: 01-2012-CF-003868-A

Your Honor,

In accordance with the provisions contained in the Florida Rules and Criminal Procedure, the undersigned, on behalf of Mental Health Resource Center, hereby submits a court progress report regarding the above-named defendant. Mr. Cloud was found Guilty By Reason Of Insanity.

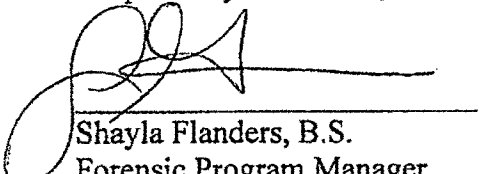

Mr. Cloud has not properly conducted himself, but has violated the conditions of his Conditional Release in the following manner:

Mr. Cloud recently lost his placement at New Life Recovery Services after breaking curfew. The staff at New Life also suspected Mr. Cloud was using however, he passed all urinary screens following the allegations. After speaking with Mr. Cloud, he advised prior to his current hospitalization at Memorial Hospital, he used about $80 worth of cocaine because he was feeling hopeless. He felt that if people were already accusing him of using, he might as well use. It is the recommendation of the undersigned that Mr. Cloud be evaluated to determine if he continues to meet the criteria for conditional release.

The undersigned recognizes that the defendant's sentence and movements are governed by a Judge and not a Mental Health Professional, therefore the contents of this report are considered as advisory only.

If there are any questions concerning this report or the defendant, please contact the undersigned at (904) 377-3388. Thank you.

Respectfully Submitted,
