To whom it may concern,

I am writing this character reference on behalf of Michael Kesselring, whom I have known for ten years in both personal and community settings. It is with the utmost sincerity that I express my support for him.

Michael is a man of integrity, responsibility, and compassion. In my experience, he has consistently demonstrated honesty, reliability, and respect toward others. He carries himself with dignity and treats people fairly, regardless of their circumstances.

I am aware that Michael is facing some serious allegations. Based on my direct knowledge of his character, I find these accusations to be completely inconsistent with the person I know. In my view, Michael has always conducted himself in a manner that has been to help others and stand up for those who are in need.

I believe Michael Kesselring to be a person of strong values who seeks to live honorably. I am confident that he will continue to contribute positively to society and uphold the trust that others have placed in him. He has grown in maturity exponentially since we first became friends.

Michael deserves to chance to try and salvage what is left of his life. He is no threat to public safety.

Respectfully,

James Robbins
